i have heard it said that everyone alive has a special gift therefore it stands to reason that we all have a special disability maybe sometimes the two go hand in hand the definitive collection of great writings on music from ancient greece through the twentieth century if in earlier eras music may have seemed slow to respond to advances in other artistic media during the modernist age it asserted itself in the vanguard modernism and music provides a rich selection of texts on this moment some translated into english for the first time it offers not only important statements by composers and critics but also musical speculations by poets novelists philosophers and others all of which combine with daniel albright s extensive interlinked commentary to place modernist music in the full context of intellectual and cultural history
