how to read the new testament is not an introduction to linguistics and new testament interpretation as the subtitle indicates it is more broadly conceived an introduction to linguistic and historical critical methodologies its emphasis on linguistics particularly in part 3 reading synchronically however cannot be understated and it will provide a fresh approach to the text for many new testament interpreters traditional methods of historical criticism are discussed in parts 4 reading diachronically and 5 reading historically but egger is not as interested in the methods themselves as he is in how their application informs a reading of the new testament texts part 6 reading hermeneutically explores how the new testament can continue to be relevant in the life of the church this important volume integrates the fruit of historical criticism with the rewards of linguistic analysis. Egger's book does a magnificent job in introducing new approaches to the New Testament as well as the classic approaches and showing how they can and must be integrated for optimal understanding of the text. It should be the first choice of a textbook for introductory courses in New Testament. Adela Yarbro Collins, Professor of New Testament in the Divinity School and Chair, Department of New Testament and Early Christian Literature, University of Chicago

Biblezon is pleased to present in book format their 40 Days Biblezon Challenge: How to Read the New Testament in 40 Days. What is this challenge? A deep dive journey through the entire New Testament by the end of this challenge you will have accomplished this and learned a great deal about your faith. The New Testament is packed with stories, parables, letters and visions. In the New Testament we learn about the life of Jesus Christ. We get an eyewitness account as Jesus uses parables to teach his disciples and us how to live as Christians. We see the early days of the church after Christ's Ascension into heaven. The letters of Peter and Paul play a crucial role in the formative days of our church and they are there for us to consume and learn from. The book is set up with daily selections of scripture readings followed by reflections on the selected passages. The RSV Catholic Edition text has been included as a convenient single source for study. The book's two-column format contains the text of the daily selected readings followed by reflections. Finally, closing each day out is a short prayer. Ideally, we recommend finding a quiet place to spend a few minutes in prayer and reflection. Read the readings and reflections for each day after reading each passage and reflection. Sit in silence, listen to what God is telling you about what you have just read. Is there something coming to your mind that struck you? Is there a message tugging at your heart? Write these down in a journal so that you have these thoughts for later study. The lessons from the New Testament are ageless and timeless. They reach across the centuries and guide us even today. Come along with us and countless others who have taken the 40 Days Biblezon Challenge: How to Read the New Testament in 40 Days as we learn and grow in knowledge and love of our faith.

Even angels long to look into these things. Peter wrote to encourage and embolden isolated and vulnerable believers. His timeless words have consoled and challenged ever since and show how the eternal gospel is true even in the toughest circumstances. The last sentence in 1 Peter 1:12 profoundly illustrates that the experience we have each time we open up the scriptures is nothing less than a heavenly privilege. A privilege that angels do not have but would love to mark. Meynell skillfully brings the New Testament to life, guiding the reader through preaching the gospels and acts, the parables, the letters and Revelation, as well as using a host of worked examples, sample sermons and personal exercises. This book offers ideas and approaches to stretch even the most seasoned preachers. This preaching resource will make an excellent companion to Christopher Wright's Sweeter than Honey: Preaching the Old Testament.
